- Interaction with the Staff Council
- Update on UN Special contributions
- UNOG Open Day
- Overtime survey
- Leave and flexible working arrangements
- Adjustable-height desks

Decisions taken:

1. Update on UN Special contributions. Noting the work already done in the preparation of a two-page section presenting the various professions involved in the Languages Service, to be published in the October issue, the Bureau agreed to Olivier Meyer's offer to organize a meeting of volunteers to coordinate the articles planned for forthcoming issues.
2. UNOG Open Day. The Bureau invited members to call for volunteers to assist with this event.
2. Overtime survey. The Bureau invited the President to put a discussion of the survey on the agenda for its next meeting.
3. Leave and flexible working arrangements. The Bureau called for volunteers to compile any discrepancies with regard to internal arrangements observed within LS, but also between LS in UNOG and the languages services in UNHQ.
4. Adjustable-height desks. Noting LS management's 2016 offer to provide adjustable-height desks to interested staff members and observing that staff members attempting to obtain such desks were told that these were reserved for severe medical cases, the Bureau gratefully accepted Olivier Meyer's offer to seek clarification from management regarding the policy so as to determine whether there was any scope for the use of such desks to prevent medical conditions rather than merely palliate them.
